Company honored for ethical practices

The Better Business Bureau in Central California has honored Icenhower Real Estate and Development of Visalia for ethical business practices.

The Ethics Awards is the bureau's annual awards program that honors outstanding local for-profit companies that have demonstrated a commitment to ethical business practices, both in operations and with employees, vendors and customers, said Doug Broten, BBB President.

Icenhower Real Estate and Development has been in business for more than 25 years.

It's located at 420 N. Court St., Suite 400 in Visalia.
