

Unique custom designed full scribe log home by Caribou Creek Log Homes, one of the premier log hand-crafters in North America. One of a kind lodge style home features large hand-crafted logs and soaring tongue and groove ceilings with massive log beams. At 4,000' elevation, home adjoins Panthertown Valley National Forest and offers a wonderful view of the Blue Ridge Parkway from nearly every room on main level.

- Log home on 2.55 +/- acre Lot 11 Longview Ridge, adjoining majestic Panthertown Valley National Forest offering miles of hiking, horseback riding, mountain biking, and fly fishing in the numerous streams.
- Logs are from Idaho & Canada.
- Circular driveway with double drive-through Porte Cochère in front of home.
- Natural slate in foyer
- Red oak flooring in great room and one of the master bedrooms. Other master bedroom is carpeted.
- Split plan with two master bedroom suites on main level. Both master baths have tubs and showers.
- Covered porch off great room offers fantastic long range mountain views.
- Open decks off both master suites with covered porch between the decks.
- Pella windows throughout with Pella French doors in great room, Pella sliders in both master suites. All have integrated blinds.
- Gas log freestanding fireplace in great room.
- Guest half bath on main level.
- Dual fuel Jenn-air range
- Rustic kitchen with tile countertops
- Dishwasher & side by side refrigerator
- Spacious Loft featuring built-ins
- Generac standby generator
- Preformed concrete walls - lower level
- Lower level has inside and outside access.
- Lower level bedroom has adjoining sitting room/office.
- Bonus/Recreation room on lower level has tile floors and access to outside patio.
- Lower level bath accessed from both recreation room and bedroom.
- Large heated workshop and laundry on lower level.
- Other part of basement is heated and could have multiple uses. This section of basement also has outside access with chain link fenced dog run.