INSTRUCTORS,

See the announcement below concerning the ROP Polo Shirts and the Christian Education Pancake Breakfast.

NEW AND RETURNING CHAMPIONS

Please review the comments and instructions from Bro. Robert Roach on assignment #2 with your initiate. These should have been reviewed already by the parent and submitted with the parent letter to your team on Saturday. If sections of the assignment need to be redone, have initiates redo them and return them to you. This process may need to be repeated until the response is satisfactory.

The Polo Shirts that you ordered will be available this Saturday.

Please support the Christian Education Pancake Breakfast. See the attached file for details. Tickets will be available for purchase this Saturday in the Trinity Café for $5. These can be donated to the initiates who arrive after 6am next Saturday or to their mothers. You can also use it for yourself. The food is usually excellent, and this is a fundraiser for the Carpenter's workshop.

Champion Team 4 will support the morning program this Saturday.

ROP ALUMNI

Congratulations to alumni Christian Strong ('00), who graduated Pre-Med from Harvard University, and Irving Stevens ('00), who graduated from University of Idaho with a degree in Criminology! We thank God for your accomplishments! Keep up the good work!

PARENTS

For the LORD is righteous, He loves righteousness; His countenance beholds the upright. Psalm 11:7. So let us strive to be right, think right, love right, and do right. When we do, we will be good examples to one another and to the initiates.

Instructor Bro. Robert Roach requested that his comments on his graded homework assignment #2 be reviewed by you and your son's champion. Some questions need to be redone, but not returned to Bro.

Roach. He suggests that they be reviewed again by you and your son's champion. So parents, please return the graded assignment from Robert Roach this Saturday so that it can be passed on to your son's champion team.

Back-ordered boots and uniforms are now available at Sav-On Surplus. All initiates are expected to be in full uniform this Saturday morning with their name badge.

Parents please support the Christian Education Pancake Breakfast. See the attached file for details. Tickets will be available for purchase this Saturday in the Trinity Café for $5.

For Fathers Day, the initiates are asked to meet in front of the Tabernacle in full uniform at 8:30am and stay through the entire 10am service. A section inside of the Tabernacle will be reserved for ROP initiates, men, and families. Further details will be available next week.

If your son received detention last Saturday or is given detention this Saturday, Dr. Scales may want to meet with you before you sign-out your initiate.

Have a blessed week and we look forward to seeing you and your son this Saturday morning for the ending of ROP Week #11.

INITIATES

We want to recognize another initiate for outstanding attendance. He missed the first class of drill due to his ROP intake interview, and he has not missed a day since. Congratulations ReyVaughn Wells. Keep up the good work!

All of you are expected to be in full uniform this Saturday morning, including your name badge. At 9am Bro. Prince Simmons will return as your instructor.

At 10am Rev. Clarence Moore will continue the Bible Study Class. In his class last week you were given the following instructions for homework:

1. Pray twice daily, morning and night.
2. Read one chapter per day from the book of Proverbs according to the day's date. If today's date is June 10th, then read the 10th chapter of Proverbs.
3. Memorize the first twenty books of the Old Testament. There will be an exam Saturday.

Bro. Robert Roach has completed his class and has returned his first two assignments. He requests that your parent and your champion review assignment #2. If Bro. Roach recommends that you redo a certain section, you should redo it and return it to your champion and/or parent for review.

Those of you who had detention last week and who are assigned detention this week must serve it with Dr. Scales after the morning program at 11am. If necessary, conferences will be held with your parent/guardian at that time.

We look forward to seeing you this Saturday morning for the end of ROP Week #11.
