

FCBC 2009 RoP – Prayer Fundamentals Class Outline

Instructor:

Anthony R. Newman

Direct Contact: 323.294.0800

e-mail: anthony@neirealty.com

Class Objectives

Identify and demonstrate some of the fundamental characteristics of effectual prayer and intercession. Via instruction and dialog, lead the young men to embrace characteristics of Godliness and thereby empowering them to choose and develop a lifestyle of prayer modeled after some of the characteristics of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ.

Dialog and give them ways of practical application to make sure they embrace some fundamental skills to effectively pray. Give them practical, biblical skills that will start them on a path to make prayer a lifestyle choice.

Topics that will be Discussed and Developed as functions of a Lifestyle of Prayer

- Who is the Holy Trinity
- Reverence of God and his creations
- Holy Boldness (courage)
- Relationship with the Holy Trinity
- Honor
- Posture (the mechanics) of prayer
- Hope (the anticipation of prayer)
- Change (the result of prayer manifested)
- Compassion

Class Requirements

- Acceptable assignments will be typed on font (Arial) size (12), single space. With the exceptions of those who's parents verify they do not have access to MS Word.
- Header is required on every piece of paper turned in. If there are multiple pages, number them on the footer and staple them together. The header must be Right Shifted and contain the following:

RoP – Prayer Fund.
Name
Assign. Date / Due Date
Instructor: Bro. Newman

- Assignment is to be turned in on time, without exception, for consideration of full credit.
- Parents and students may contact me via e-mail with any question regarding any assignment given at anthony@neirealty.com.
- All assignments are to be turned in to the RoP administration during the sign in process.