SIX FLAGS OVER GEORGIA
www.sixflags.com/overGeorgia
 If it's a sunny day and you want to have fun with your children, you may want to try Six Flags Over Georgia. Six Flags over Georgia is celebrating its 40th Anniversary of fun and entertainment. Sure, a day at Six Flags is packed with thrilling rides. But they also have special celebrations, family events and seasonal festivities, just to make sure you get your fill of fun. We're talking everything from a concert series to dance contests to the greatest Halloween party out there.

LAKE LANIER ISLANDS
www.lakelanierislands.com
 If you'd rather be in the water all day, try Lake Lanier Islands. It has something for everyone—the Kiddie Lagoon and the Wiggle Waves child size wave pool, Georgia's largest wave pool, Wild Waves, the Interactive three-story attraction The Fun Dunker, and a 1/2 mile-long sandy white beach overlooking the lake. Visitors can rent sailboats, houseboats, ski boats or even a luxury liner with accommodations for up to 100. Two championship golf courses-- particularly Emerald Pointe--offer lake views and challenging holes or saddle up at the Equestrian Center.

ZOO ATLANTA
www.zooatlanta.com
 Are you a lover of animals from around the world, yet your travel plans are in Atlanta? Have no fear! Stop by Zoo Atlanta for a day of seeing the Giant Pandas Exhibit. You can also visit the gorillas, orangutans, tigers, lions, giraffes, elephants, birds and more, all in their natural habitats. The zoo boasts a collection of 1,000 specimens with 250 species of animals from all over the world. Located at Grant Park, the 40-acres designated to Zoo Atlanta are devoted to the conservation of many animal species.

CENTENNIAL OLYMPIC PARK

www.centennialpark.com

Another favorite destination for all ages is Centennial Olympic Park, located in the heart of Atlanta! The Park boasts a variety of free, fun-filled, family entertainment throughout the year, this includes a Wednesday Wind Down, evening and weekend concert series, Family Fun Days, a spectacular Fourth of July Celebration, a Holiday in Lights festival complete with an ice skating rink, unforgettable fountain shows and much more!

ATLANTA BOTANICAL GARDENS

www.atlantabotanicalgarden.org

The Atlanta Botanical Gardens is just the place for a lazy stroll or brisk walk to enjoy the colors of Atlanta's plant world. We would suggest that you do, in fact stop and smell the roses in this outdoor showplace! The Atlanta Botanical Gardens were incorporated in 1976 to develop and maintain plant collections for the purpose of display, education, research, conservation and enjoyment. The Gardens feature 15 acres of outdoor display gardens, the Upper Woodland which showcases five acres of shade-loving ornamentals from around the world, and the 10-acre Storza Woods with natural undergrowth and walking trails. Across the Flower Bridge is the two-acre Children's Garden, which has been designed as a "wellness" garden. The Dorothy Chapman Fuqua Conservatory houses rare and endangered plants from tropical rainforests and desert regions. The Fuqua Orchid Center houses a High Elevation House, a Tropical Display House and a Center for Education and Conservation. Atlanta Botanical Gardens should not be left off your summer entertainment list!

If we are experiencing one of our summer rains, or if you want to get out of the sun, then by all means jump on these places! You and your guests will surely make memories, no matter which you choose!

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

www.georgiaaquarium.org

Now is the perfect time to experience the World's largest aquarium and one of the feature Atlanta attractions! With eight million gallons of fresh and marine water and more aquatic life than found in any other aquarium, you are sure to see things you have never seen before.

WORLD OF COCA-COLA—Opens May 24, 2007

www.woccatlanta.com

Our new and expanded World has something for everyone!

- Thrilling 4-D Theater
- World's largest collection of Coke memorabilia
- Fully functioning bottling line that produces commemorative 8-ounce bottles of Coca-Cola®
- Tasting Experience with over 70 different products to sample
- Pop culture gallery featuring works by artists such as Andy Warhol, Norman Rockwell and Steve Penley
- World-famous Coca-Cola® Polar Bears

It's the only place where you can explore the complete story—past, present, and future—of the World's best known brand.

BABYLAND GENERAL HOSPITAL

www.cabbagepatchkids.com

Georgia is also home to the only BabyLand General Hospital in the world! This is the birthplace of the "hand-stitched" Cabbage Patch doll that took girls and boys in the U.S. by storm a few years ago. Located in a real turn-of-the-century hospital, you can see how the kids are "born." Be prepared! The babies are so adorable, you may want to adopt one right on the spot. Visit the delivery patch where you can choose the baby you want to adopt and then name the baby right then and there! Your adoption is complete with baby and papers when you leave!

CNN STUDIO

www.cnn.com/tour/Atlanta

If T.V. is your scene and you like to see studios in action, then a visit to the CNN Studio is a must for you and your guests! CNN is among the world's leaders in news and information delivery. Staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week by a dedicated team in CNN's world headquarters in Atlanta and in bureaus worldwide, CNN relies heavily on their global group of almost 4,000 news professionals. CNN features the latest multimedia technologies, from live video streaming to audio packages to searchable archives of news features and background information. You can actually watch the anchors and see how they deliver the news around the clock!

OUT OF THE ORDINARY!

ATLANTA MOTOR SPEEDWAY

www.atlantamotorspeedway.com

If speed is your thing, then you must visit the Atlanta Motor Speedway! Tour the famous Atlanta Motor Speedway and glimpse behind the scenes of one of the premier motor sports facilities in the country. Located just 30 miles south of downtown Atlanta, the speedway hosts two NASCAR Busch and Nextel Cup races each year that attract about 250,000 fans from around the country and abroad. It is amazing to see how the fans love their favorite drivers! Sign up for one of the driving schools and for an experience of a lifetime.

FERNBANK NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

www.fernbank.edu

Do big dinosaur skeletons, exhibits that show the history of Georgia and IMAX movies intrigue you? Then your next stopping place has to be Fernbank Natural History Museum! By learning about the state of Georgia and the history of its six diverse landform regions, visitors begin to understand the Earth's incredible transformations and the plant and animal developments that have resulted with the change in their habitats over millions of years. Various galleries incorporating landscapes, plants, animals and scientific principles, place visitors within the visual concept of the topics. Different exhibits portray a theory of earth's coming into existence and its evolution. You can also come face to face with 60 live animals from curious chameleons to beautiful boas. Also explore "A Walk Through Time in Georgia", a two-fold story of Georgia's natural history and development of our planet. While you're there, be sure to catch a stunning IMAX film. The immense IMAX screen--5 stories high and 72 feet wide--puts you right in the middle of the action.

CHASTAIN PARK AMPHITHEATRE (May through October)

For music buffs who like to picnic while listening to music, Chastain Park is a must! Chastain Park Amphitheatre is a small outdoor venue situated comfortably in a natural setting located off Roswell Road in the Buckhead area of Atlanta. Recognized as one of the most popular amphitheatres in the country, Chastain Park Amphitheatre sets the standard for summer entertainment in Atlanta. Many of music's biggest names from every musical genre have appeared on the Chastain stage. Chastain is known for its relaxed atmosphere complimenting the performances. Socializing and food come first, music second. Table holders bring elaborate candelabras, tablecloths and four-course meals. Lawn dwellers spread out blankets and get comfortable with their picnic baskets and bottles of wine. Sit back and enjoy the scenery, even if your favorite group isn't performing. There are many restaurants nearby that will prepare a beautiful meal with all the trimmings for your evening at Chastain!
